

LEHMANN CONSULTING, INC.
NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights: When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you. You have the right to:

Receive an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

- You can ask to see or copy an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information within a reasonable time.
- If you ask to see or receive a copy of your record for purposes of reviewing current medical care, we may not charge you a fee. If you request copies of your patient records of past medical care, or for certain appeals, we may charge you specified fees. [Minn. Stat. § 144.292 subd. 6]

Ask us to correct your medical record

- You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request for us to contact you confidentially

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- Minnesota Law requires your consent for disclosure of treatment, payment, or operations information. [Minn. Stat. § 144.293 subd. 2] You may ask us to limit what types of information are shared.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer or other entity. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us directly.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices: When it comes to your health information, you have choices. This section explains some of these choices.

You may request us not to share:

If you have a clear preference for how we share your information, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions. You may specify that we not share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care. For our protection, we ask you to sign releases permitting us to contact people who are not directly involved in your care such as attorneys, law enforcement, and other people with whom you may wish us to share information.

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

We will never share your information unless you give us written permission for the following uses:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

Use and Disclosure of Your Information

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways. We need your consent before we disclose protected health information for treatment, payment, and operations purposes, unless the disclosure is to a related entity, or the disclosure is for a medical emergency and we are unable to obtain your consent due to your condition or the nature of the medical emergency. [Minn. Stat. § 144.293, subd. 2 and 5]. We use information to:

- Treat you. We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you only if we have your consent. We can only release your health records to health care facilities and providers outside our practice without your consent if it is an emergency and you are unable to provide consent due to the nature of the emergency.

LEHMANN CONSULTING, INC.
NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

- Run our organization. We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary. We are required to obtain your consent before we release your health records to other providers for their own health care operations.
- Bill for your services. We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities only if we obtain your consent.

How else can we use or share your health information?

- We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.
- Help with public health and safety issues. We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:
 - Preventing disease
 - Helping with product recalls
 - Reporting adverse reactions to medications
 - Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
 - Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone’s health or safety
- Do research. We can use or share your information for health research if you do not object. [Minn. Stat. § 144.295 subd. 1]
- Comply with the law. We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we’re complying with federal privacy law. [Minn. Stat. § 144.293 subd. 2]
- Work with a medical examiner or coroner. We can share health information with a coroner and medical examiner when an individual dies. We need consent to share information with a funeral director. [Minn. Stat. § 390.11 subd. 7 (a)]
- Address workers’ compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests. We can use or share health information about you:
 - For workers’ compensation claims
 - For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official with your consent, unless required by law. [Minn. Stat. § 144.293, subd. 2]
 - With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
 - For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services with your consent, unless required by law. [Minn. Stat. § 144.293, subd. 2]
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions. We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena. [Minn. Stat. § 144.293 subd. 2]

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health
